

International Judicial Cooperation in Criminal Matters

Prof. Tommaso Rafaraci

The course will provide an overview of judicial cooperation in criminal matters both at the international and European level. The course will cover the following subject-matters:

- Extradition
- Mutual recognition under the third pillar of the EU
- The European Arrest Warrant
- International legal Assistance
- Rogatory
- The EU Convention on mutual legal assistance in criminal matters
- The European Evidence Warrant
- Joint investigation teams
- Eurojust and Europol

Reading list:

- Bassiouni M. C., The Indirect Enforcement System and the Modalities of International Cooperation in Penal Matters (Chapter V), in Introduction to International Criminal Law, Transnational Publishers 2003, pp. 333-385.
- Mackarel M., The European Arrest Warrant – the Early Years: Implementing and Using the Warrant, European Journal of Crime, Criminal Law and Criminal Justice 2007, pp. 37-65.
- Rafaraci T., Procedural Safeguards and the Principle of Ne Bis In Idem in the European Union, in Aa. Vv., European Cooperation in Penal Matters: Issues and Perspectives, M.C. Bassiouni-V. Militello-H. Satzger (eds.), CEDAM 2008, pp. 363-401.

Further material and references will be provided during the course.